ADA Grievance Procedure

This Grievance Procedure is established in accordance with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”). It may be used by anyone who wishes to file a complaint alleging discrimination on the basis of disability in the provision of services, activities, programs, or benefits by the San Bernardino County Superior Court (“Court”).

Before filing a grievance, you may seek informal resolution by contacting the ADA Coordinator [See contact information contained in this Procedure]. The Court encourages, but does not require, an attempt to resolve concerns informally prior to filing a formal grievance. If your informal concern is not resolved in a timely fashion, you have the right to file a formal grievance under this procedure.

Do not use this process if the court denied your request for accommodation and you want to appeal. See the procedures in California Rules of Court rule 1.100(g):

- If your request was denied by a judge or commissioner, see California Rules of Court rule 1.100(g)(2), and rules 8.485 – 8.493 or 8.930 – 8.936.
  - If your request was denied by someone other than a judge or commissioner, see California Rules of Court rule 1.100(g)(1).
1. The complaint should be in writing and contain the complainant’s name, address, and phone number, as well as a detailed description of the incident or condition, and the location, date, and time of any incident. Upon request to the Court’s ADA Coordinator (contact information provided below) complaints may be filed in another format, such as in person or by telephone, that accommodates the complainant.
  2. The complaint should be submitted by the complainant and/or his/her designee as soon as possible, but no later than 30 calendar days after the incident occurred, to the Court’s ADA Coordinator:

The Court will make every reasonable effort to ensure that confidentiality is maintained throughout the complaint and investigation process, to the extent consistent with the law, adequate investigation, and appropriate corrective action. This means that the Court will share information only on a need-to-know basis.

3. Upon receipt of a complaint, the ADA Coordinator or designee will investigate the complaint. The ADA Coordinator may, at his or her discretion, discuss the complaint or possible resolution of the complaint with the complainant, or seek additional information from the complainant. The complainant’s failure to respond to a request for additional information may be deemed an abandonment of the complaint. The ADA Coordinator or designee may, in his/her discretion, seek assistance from other sources in responding to the complaint.
4. Within 30 calendar days of receiving the complaint, the ADA Coordinator or designee will respond in writing to the complainant. The response will explain the position of the Court, and if applicable, offer options for resolution of the complaint. Upon request to the ADA Coordinator, responses may be presented in another format, such as in person or by telephone, that accommodates the complainant. If more than 30 days is required to respond to the complaint, the ADA Coordinator will promptly notify the complainant of the expected date that a written response will be provided.

5. If the complainant and/or designee is dissatisfied with the response by the ADA Coordinator or designee, the complainant may request reconsideration of the response within 10 calendar days after the date of the response
6. Requests for reconsideration should be in writing, and include the complainant's name, address, and phone number, a copy of the original complaint, a copy of the Court's response, and a description of issues for reconsideration. Upon request to the ADA Coordinator, requests for reconsideration may be filed in another format, such as in person or by telephone, that accommodates the complainant. Requests for reconsideration must be submitted to:

7. The Office of the General Counsel will review the initial complaint, written response of the ADA Coordinator or designee, and the request for reconsideration, and may at his or her discretion, discuss the complaint or possible resolution of the request for reconsideration with the complainant, or seek additional information from the complainant. The complainant's failure to respond to a request for additional information may be deemed an abandonment of the request for reconsideration. The General Counsel or designee may, in his/her discretion, seek assistance from other sources in responding to the request for reconsideration.
8. Within 30 calendar days of receiving the request for reconsideration, the Office of the General Counsel will respond in writing to the complainant with a final resolution of the complaint. Upon request to the Office of the General Counsel, the response may be presented in another format, such as in person or by telephone, that accommodates the complainant. If more than 30 days is required to respond to the request for reconsideration, the Office of the General Counsel will promptly notify the complainant of the expected date that a written response will be provided.
9. All written complaints, requests for reconsideration, and responses will be retained by the Court for at least three years.
